

(Re)Insurance

Our (re)insurance team consists of specialists who have extensive experience in local and international insurance and reinsurance litigation and arbitration in Bermuda, London and the United States of America.

Trott & Duncan Limited has dealt with a number of major reinsurance insolvencies. We provide a wide range of advice covering contentious, corporate, and regulatory (re) insurance matters and the lawyers in this practice group regularly act in high profile disputes. Advice is provided to clients including North American companies, Lloyds Syndicates, London Market and local (re)insurers, brokers and agents.

The firm is also experienced in assisting clients with investigations by regulatory bodies such as the Bermuda Monetary Authority or Securities and Exchange Commission.

Our services cover both the contentious and non-contentious aspects of the (re)insurance sector in the following areas:

- litigation, dispute resolution, and arbitration;
- ancillary relief including:
  - jurisdictional challenges;
  - injunctions & freezing orders;
  - enforcement of judgments;
  - depositions.
- regulatory, administrative and compliance issues;
- start up of (re)insurance vehicles including the formation of captives.
